

Lakeview United Affirming Statement

You deserve to be welcomed here.

We strive to insure there are no barriers to inclusion within the Lakeview community: all races, ethnicities, genders, orientations, gender identities, abilities, ages, and people of all socioeconomic status, are welcome.

It is imperative that we recognize the value of diversity and are committed to embracing each individual with joy, compassion and love.

At Lakeview we believe that our community, the ministries which they undertake and the assets which it owns are to be used by all to promote equality and love.

Lakeview is committed to seeking out all races, ethnicities, genders, orientations, gender identities, abilities, ages, and people of all socioeconomic status to serve in all levels of governance, committees. Your voice is important and welcomed.

This is our pledge, that we will do our best to welcome you here.

Treaty 4 Territory

We are privileged to gather today in Treaty 4 Territory which is the traditional territory of the Cree peoples and the homeland of the Métis people.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Fall Study Group - We will meet each Monday from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. in the chapel and on Zoom starting on September 30. We will be studying 'New Testament Women for Progressive Christians, Vol 1' by Donald Schmidt. There are three hard copies (cost $8.00) not spoken for but it is also possible to download an e-book version (cost $11.50 + GST) from Wood Lake Books. Contact Ron 639-590-6718.

The Saskatchewan Children's Writers' Round Robin, is hosting their gala 40th anniversary celebration here in Regina. On Saturday, September 14, 1:30 – 4:30, there will be a free event at George Bothwell Library, at which each of the eleven members will give a brief talk on specific aspects of writing. It will be livestreamed, for those not able to attend in person. This is primarily intended for adults, but teens interested in writing are welcome too. In addition to the talks, there will be refreshments provided by Regina Public Library, and a book table where their books will be displayed (and available for purchase if anyone's interested). <https://books4kids.ca/40th/>

Also, beginning on September 14 and open until November 1 is the free, province-wide "Fly Into Reading" contest for children in grades K-12. <https://books4kids.ca/contest/>

This is a province-wide event, in which kids anywhere in Saskatchewan are invited to read at least one book by the members, and to respond in some way (perhaps a drawing, or something in writing). Entries will be submitted through their website.

On November 4, a draw will be made for two winners in each of four age/grade categories ranging from grades K-12. Each winner will be awarded three books of their choice, as well as a free author visit to their school (either in person, or virtually).
