

Lakeview United Affirming Statement

You deserve to be welcomed here.

We strive to insure there are no barriers to inclusion within the Lakeview community: all races, ethnicities, genders, orientations, gender identities, abilities, ages, and people of all socioeconomic status, are welcome.

It is imperative that we recognize the value of diversity and are committed to embracing each individual with joy, compassion and love.

At Lakeview we believe that our community, the ministries which they undertake and the assets which it owns are to be used by all to promote equality and love.

Lakeview is committed to seeking out all races, ethnicities, genders, orientations, gender identities, abilities, ages, and people of all socioeconomic status to serve in all levels of governance, committees. Your voice is important and welcomed.

This is our pledge, that we will do our best to welcome you here.

Treaty 4 Territory

We are privileged to gather today in Treaty 4 Territory which is the traditional territory of the Cree peoples and the homeland of the Métis people.

Volunteers Needed

LUC is hosting a sit down Traditional Turkey Supper for the first time since 2019 on Sunday, November 3. Many volunteers have already been busy planning the meal and set up. While the supper is buffet style, help is still needed during and after the event. Duties could include serving refreshments at guest tables, serving dessert, clearing away dishes, prepping dishes for the dishwasher and take down after the event. The best part is that you will have a chance to meet and visit with our guests and other members in our Lakeview community. If you are interested in helping us out, please contact Rhonda at 306-581-9057.

The Saskatchewan Children's Writers' Round Robin – Now on and open until November 1 is the free, province-wide "Fly Into Reading" contest for children in grades K-12.

<https://books4kids.ca/contest/>

This is a province-wide event, in which kids anywhere in Saskatchewan are invited to read at least one book by the members, and to respond in some way (perhaps a drawing, or something in writing). Entries will be submitted through their website.

On November 4, a draw will be made for two winners in each of four age/grade categories ranging from grades K-12. Each winner will be awarded three books of their choice, as well as a free author visit to their school (either in person, or virtually).
